

[illegible]

Papunya Artists started the desert art movement, though in the early years the painting were easy to sell but later on it became harder to maintain the movement.

The art from the western desert comes from the home of the Walpiri people, Yuendumu.

The works are highly recognized and sought after and continue to grow in richness and variety

<http://www.aboriginalartonline.com/regions/kintore.php>